(54) Title: PROCESS FOR MANUFACTURING LABELS AND AN ARRANGEMENT FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF SAID PROCESS

(57) Abstract: The present invention relates to a process for the manufacturing of labels made of textile material and for dividing them from the ribbon form (3-3ⁿ) into individual examples. In accordance with the present invention, a ribbon (3-3ⁿ) of the intended labels produced in a loom (2) is caused to be fed directly into a cutting device (4). Said ribbon of labels (3-3ⁿ) in question is caused to be clamped during the cutting operation, and preferably a laser-cutting device (5) is caused to be conveyed across said ribbon (3-3ⁿ) of labels. The cut labels (1-1ⁿ; 1A-1ⁿA...) are so arranged as to be collected subsequently in a collecting position intended for this purpose. The invention also relates to an arrangement for the implementation of said process.

* Special categories of cited documents:

"A" document defining the general state of the art which is not considered to be of particular relevance

"E" earlier application or patent but published on or after the international filing date

"L" document which may throw doubts on priority claim(s) or which is cited to establish the publication date of another citation or other special reason (as specified)

"O" document referring to an oral disclosure, use, exhibition or other means

"P" document published prior to the international filing date but later than the priority date claimed

"T" later document published after the international filing date or priority date and not in conflict with the application but cited to understand the principle or theory underlying the invention

"X" document of particular relevance: the claimed invention cannot be considered novel or cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is taken alone

"Y" document of particular relevance: the claimed invention cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is combined with one or more other such documents, such combination being obvious to a person skilled in the art

"&" document member of the same patent family
